St. Peter's Group of Wisdom

"The St. Peter's Group of Wisdom would like to invite all interested parishioners to join us at our next meeting on Thursday, February 15th at 9:30am in the Parish Auditorium. We are very fortunate to have a guest instructor coming in to lead us in an introduction to _tai chi_ practice. _Tai chi_ is a gentle, low-impact form of mind-body practice which can have beneficial effects on both mental and physical health.

This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about the practice of this ancient martial art, and to discover how it might be helpful in our daily lives by reducing stress, promoting strength, balance and co-ordination, and supporting our overall wellbeing. Do join us in your most comfortable clothes and shoes!"

Someone to Talk to in a Difficult Time

These uncertain Covid times have shone a light on the pressing need for mental health support services. St. Peter's Parish and Dr. Egit have teamed up in addressing that need.

When is it time for mental health support?

The question is puzzling.

Are we; depressed enough, anxious enough, stressed enough, worthy enough ?

Those are imponderable quandaries on which to base a decision .

The simpler questions are,

"Have I been unhappy" and "Is my daily life a struggle?"

If the answer is yes, then mental health supports are appropriate.

The service is free.

There are a limited number of hours dedicated to this program. Dr. Egit will be available for appointments Wednesdays between 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Each appointment will be 45 minutes in length.

The sessions will be conducted on line or by telephone. To arrange to speak with him, you are asked to call and book an appointment with the parish office (416-534-4219).

Dr. Egit is a psychotherapist and a psychoanalyst experienced in working with individuals and couples. He holds an MA and a Ph.D. from The University of Toronto and had completed his psychoanalytic training and certification from the Toronto Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis. He is registered with the College of Registered Psychotherapists of Ontario

Prayer for Priests

O, Jesus Eternal priest, keep your priests within the shelter of your heart where none may harm them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily hold your sacred body. Keep holy their lips moistened with your precious blood. Keep holy and unearthly their hearts sealed with sublime mark of your glorious priesthood. Let your love surround and shield them from the contagion of this world. Their labors for the Glory of God may be blessed with abundant fruits and may the one whom they serve be the source of joy to them here on earth and in heaven their eternal crown. Let them be eager to be with you, to proclaim your good news and to fight against the evil one. Lord, give your church holy priests, religious and lay leaders. Jesus Redeemer of this world keep pure your priests and those whom they serve.

Holy Mary Queen of priests, pray for your priests.
